A Workshop on
IPRs: Scope for Management Institutes
3 March, 2020

Anekant Institute of Management Studies, Baramati in line with its practice, had organized a Workshop with the above title for the benefit of the faculty members of the Institute. The objective was to generate clarity over the issues concerning IPR mobilization, legal formalities, opportunities, and the agencies involved in the process of IPRs.

Ms. Kalyani Ahir, Manager, Innovation and IP, Innov-Accel Pvt. Ltd., Pune was invited as the resource person. Following are the glimpses:

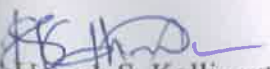

The resource person, who is pursuing PhD in the area of IPRs besides having hands on experience of working with organizations, and individuals for IPRs, uncovered many myths surrounding IPR filing process.

The workshop was full of insights and illustrations of the IPRs possibilities for individuals and institutions connected to Management Education.

The workshop generated immense interest among the participants over IPRs and left the audience craving for more knowledge. It was suggested by all that there must be an elaborate workshop on the similar theme covering broader audience. The resource person promised to attend for such future events and assured all the cooperation from her side.

Dr. Umesh S. Kollimath proposed Vote of Thanks.
