INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

Introduction

AIMS practices the women empowerment in real sense and has zero tolerance for sexual harassment. The administrator have set policies who is working or studying in the institute has the right to be treated with dignity and respect and has a right to safe and healthy work environment. AIMS is committed to provide a place of work and study that is free of sexual harassment. Hence, the institute has an Internal Complaints Committee which promptly and thoroughly looks into matters related to sexual harassment. The committee respects the confidentiality and privacy of individuals reporting and the accused of sexual harassment to the extent possible. Care is also taken to see that the complainants, witnesses and the harasser does not face victimization and discrimination during the process of enquiry.

Objectives

- To build self-esteem and dignity among girl students and ladies faculty members.
- To offer service such as counseling, legal aid in case of atrocities against women.
- To create awareness regarding women rights.
- To avoid and prohibit sexual harassment at institute.
- To arrange programs regarding health, personality development etc.
- To record and document the minutes of meetings and annual reports.

What constitutes sexual harassment?

The sexual harassment of women at workplace (prevention, prohibition and redressal) act 2013.

The sexual harassment of women at workplace (prevention, prohibition and redressal) act 2013 is an act to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at work place. Sexual harassment results in the violation of basic fundamental rights of women such as Right to equality under article 14,15 and her right to life and live with dignity under article 21 of the constitution of India.

Act 2013 includes any one or more of the following 'Unwelcome' acts or behaviour:

- physical contact and advances;
- a demand or request for sexual favours;
- making sexually coloured remarks;
- showing pornography; or
- any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

This would also include online harassment via internet, SMS and social network sites. Further, the following may also amount to sexual harassment:

- implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment;
- implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment;
- implied or explicit threat about present or future employment status;
- interference with work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment; or
- humiliating treatment likely to affect health or safety.

Functions of ICC

The Internal Complaints Committee has two major functions: 1. Preventive 2. Remedial

Preventive

- To work towards creating an atmosphere promoting equality, non-discrimination and gender sensitivity.
- To promote and facilitate measures to create a work environment that is free of sexual harassment.

Remedial

- To receive and take cognizance of complaints made about sexual harassment at the institute and give every complaint serious consideration.

- To conduct enquiries into the complaints, place findings and recommendations regarding penalties against the harasser.

Mechanism of ICC on Sexual Harassment

The mechanism for registering complaints at AIMS is safe, accessible and sensitive.

Step I: An aggrieved female should give a written complaint either in person or through post or email. It should be submitted to the 'Internal Complaints Committee' within 3 months of the date of the incident. The time-limit may be extended for a further period of 3 months if, on account of certain circumstances, the woman was prevented from filing the complaint. If the aggrieved woman is unable to make a complaint, her legal heirs may do so.

Step II: On receipt of the complaint, the ICC will proceed to make an inquiry in accordance with the service rules or in their absence, in accordance with rules under the Act. The inquiry will be completed within 90 days. And the inquiry report will be submitted within 10 days from the date of completion of the inquiry.

Step III: If the ICC finds that the allegations against the respondent are proven, it will submit a report to the Director to take action for sexual harassment as misconduct in accordance with the provisions of the applicable service rules or where no service rules exist, in accordance with rules framed under the Act.

Step IV: The institute management will act on the recommendations of ICC within 60 days of the submission of the inquiry report.

Step V: Appeal against the decision of the ICC is allowed within 90 days of the recommendations.

5.1.5- The Institution has a transparent mechanism for timely redressal of student grievances including sexual harassment and ragging cases-

At Institute level, an examination committee, comprising of a Director, CEO, Faculty Members, Office Staff and Students, is constituted to handle the issues regarding examination.

The Institute strictly adheres to the SPPU guidelines & those are displayed on notice boards. Examination notices are displayed on time & students are well communicated.

Further, the Institute has constituted the Internal Squad for the Internal Examination & the register for the SPPU (External) Squad is also duly maintained.

The examination department even maintains the files related to student acknowledgement/request letters during internal & external examination.

To avoid grievances related to internal marks (CCE), the institute discloses the internal marks of students before confirming on SPPU portal. The presence of preventive mechanisms ensures grievance free examination.

to me

Dear Madam,

Greetings of the day.

As discussed over the phone, I am out of town due to some company emergency work and unable to sign on the internal marks sheet.

Please consider my mail as a confirmation of the marks and I don't have any objection to the same.
